Concertino for Trumpet & Others

for Mixed Ensemble

November, 2019

Programme Note

Concertino for Trumpet and Others explores a negotiation of power between conductor, soloist and 'supporting' instrumentalists.

Instrumentation

Flute
Bass Clarinet in B♭
Trumpet in C
Trombone
Marimba
Guitar (Amplified Classical is prefered)
Viola
Doublebass

Performance Notes

Concertino for Trumpet and Others attempts to communicate a narrative. The Trumpet is the most powerful of the instrumentalists and struggles to be the middle man between the powerful figure of the conductor and the other instrumentalists. This puts the Trumpet in a difficult position as they try to lead the other instrumentalists and negotiate their unrest as well as appeasing the conductor.

To aid in the clarity of the messaging of the piece it is preferable for it to be staged such that the Trumpet is in front of the other instrumentalist who are all stood in a line (in similar fashion to Louis Andriessen's De Volharding).

Duration: 9'10" (approx.)
