CALIFORNIA RURAL LEGAL ASSISTANCE (CRLA): SURVIVAL OF A POVERTY LAW PRACTICE

Michael Bennett
Cruz Reynoso

THE PRIVATELY FUNDED LEGAL AID OFFICE:
THE MALDEF EXPERIENCE

Joe Ortega

BROADCASTING: MEXICAN-AMERICANS
AND THE MEDIA

Mario Obledo
Robert B. Joselow

Single issue: $3.00. Subscription price: $12.00. Subscriptions are accepted only on a Volume basis, starting with the first issue of the Volume current at the time of order. Published by the Chicano Law Student Association, School of Law, University of California at Los Angeles, 405 Hilgard Avenue, Los Angeles, California 90024.

Copyright © 1972 by the Chicano Law Review

Artwork: Judith Hernandez
Oliver Wendell Holmes described a word as the skin of a living thought. If this is so, there is grave responsibility upon those who thrust words into the living stream of our society. We must be guided not by bitterness, but by courage and compassion, for as living things words may prove loyal to their purpose.

We, the Chicano Law Students at UCLA, accept this trust. We do it gladly, for its reward is self-respect, and its burden is maturity.

—Leo Salazar
Editor in Chief