REGENERACIÓN  TLACUILOLI
UCLA RAZA STUDIES JOURNAL

VOLUME 2, NO. 1, 2016

Regeneración Tlacuilolli: UCLA Raza Studies Journal is an interdisciplinary Chicana/o and Raza Studies journal managed by graduate students at the University of California, Los Angeles under the auspices of the Chicano Studies Research Center. Publication is once a year and is available through the California Digital Library and the University of California's eScholarship website at escholarship.org.

Regeneración Tlacuilolli: UCLA Raza Studies Journal is committed to depicting the intellectual, cultural, and historic issues pertinent to Chicanas and Chicanos. The journal promotes the use of creative and academic writing formats, and in the future, will seek to incorporate images, film, and sound. We seek works that utilize different methods and interdisciplinary perspectives to critically examine Chicana/o history and culture, as well as the historic and social implications of colonialism, racism, capitalism, sexism, and homophobia on and within Chicana/o communities. With this focus in mind, Regeneración Tlacuilolli: UCLA Raza Studies Journal provides a forum for dialogue on these topics in ways that are critical of, as well as remedy, injustice and inequality.

Regeneración Tlacuilolli: UCLA Raza Studies Journal welcomes submission by students, academics, community members, activists, poets, and other creative writers. To submit a manuscript, use the Submit Paper tab on the Regeneración Tlacuilolli: UCLA Raza Studies Journal escholarship website at http://escholarship.org/uc/regeneracion_tlacuilolli, or submit an attachment or inquiries to tlacuilolli@ucla.edu.
