Over the last 44 years, the Chicana/o-Latina/o Law Review ("CLLR") has provided an essential forum for the discussion of issues affecting the Latino community, and other marginalized communities, that "mainstream" law journals continue to ignore. In publishing Volume One, CLLR introduced to the nation the first legal journal that recognized how common law, statutes, legislative policy, and politically popular propositions impact the Latino community. The United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, United States District Court for the Middle District of Pennsylvania, Nevada Supreme Court and New Jersey Superior Court have cited CLLR as persuasive.

CLLR welcomes submissions of articles and comments by students, scholars, and practitioners. To submit a manuscript, use the Submit Paper button on CLLR's eScholarship site at http://escholarship.org/uc/uclalaw_cllr, or email an attachment to: cllr@lawnet.ucla.edu.
