

Catalog of the Works of Lou Harrison

by Leta E. Miller and Charles Hanson

Editorial Procedures

The following catalog reflects the state of Lou Harrison's oeuvre as of November 1997. The information contained herein will necessarily continue to evolve as new recordings are made, as new manuscripts are unearthed, and as Harrison continues to compose new pieces and revise earlier ones. We are continuing to update our information, and, at such time as it is clear that his compositional work is complete, we anticipate reissuing this catalog as a separate publication.

Composition dates derive primarily from indications on autograph manuscripts. Unless otherwise stated, the date given is the completion date. Premiere dates normally come from programs or reviews. Works are listed chronologically within each year. Those for which a month/day are unknown or whose chronology cannot be determined by other factors (e.g., premiere date or correlative events) are listed alphabetically at the end of the year.

Undated early manuscripts have been assigned to one of three groupings by extramusical factors (handwriting, instrumentation, etc.): 1933–34, 1934–36, and 1936–40. These groups appear at the end of the listings for 1934, 1936, and 1940, respectively. Only complete or nearly complete works are included; none is authorized for performance.

To show compositional history without numbering the same work twice, pieces completed many years after their inception are listed without catalog number at the time they were begun and cross-referenced to the full (numbered) listing at the date of completion.

Complete works later used as movements of larger works are numbered separately because (1) they were complete compositions at the earlier date and remain as separate viable compositions on their own; and (2) new material was added when they were incorporated into the later composition. Cross-references are given in all such instances.

Numerous tiny "gift" pieces (e.g., birthday gifts, lullabies, going-away presents, etc.) have not been listed. Example: A Thought on the Anniversary of Katherine Litz and Charles Oscar, July 26, 1951, and a Walking Tune for the Family Shahn, both included in the Litz Collection at the New York Public Library (and given in some works lists), are each a few measures in length and were never intended for public performance.

Titles are given as they appear on manuscripts or printed editions, even when that policy leads to inconsistencies (e.g., Ritual #3, Prelude in C no. 2, Psalm Sonata no. IV).

Choreographers are listed for works specifically composed for dance. In the case of nondance works that later were choreographed, references are provided only when they pertain to discussions in the present book.
