C. MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

- 4. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement, in accordance with applicable state law, nothing herein shall be construed to restrict any legal City rights concerning direction of its work force, or consideration of the merits, necessity, or organization of any service or activity provided by the City.

ARTICLE I. REPRESENTATION

5. The City shall also have the right to determine the mission of its constituent departments, officers, boards and commissions; set standards of services to be offered to the public, and exercise control and discretion over the City's organization and operations. The City may also relieve city employees from duty due to lack of work or funds, and may determine the methods, means and personnel by which the City's operations are to be conducted.
6. The exercise of these rights shall not be subject to the grievance procedure.
7. However, the exercise of such rights does not preclude employees from utilizing the grievance procedure to process grievances regarding the practical consequence of any such actions on wages, hours, benefits or other terms and conditions of employment.

D. UNION/CITY RELATIONS COMMITTEE

8. The parties hereby agree to establish a Union/City Relations Committee. The Committee shall consist of four (4) members appointed by the Union and four (4) members appointed by the City. 13.
 1. Performance evaluations, provided however, that employees shall be entitled to submit written rebuttals to unfavorable performance evaluations. Said rebuttal shall be attached to the performance evaluation and placed in the employee's official personnel file.

ARTICLE I. REPRESENTATION

required to submit written rebuttals within twenty (20) calendar days from the date of the reprimand.

Time Limits

15. The time limits set forth herein may be extended by agreement of the parties. Any such extension must be confirmed in writing. For purposes of calculation of time a "day" is defined as a "calendar day," including weekends and holidays.

Steps of the Procedure: Non-discipline

16. Except for grievances involving multiple employees or discipline, all grievances must be initiated at Step 1 of the grievance procedure.
17. A grievance affecting more than one employee shall be filed with the appointing officer or designee. Grievances affecting more than one department shall be filed with the Employee Relations Division. In the event the City disagrees with the level at which the grievance is filed it may submit the matter to the Step it believes is appropriate for consideration of the dispute.
18. The grievant may have a Union representative present at all steps of the grievance procedure.
19. Step 1: An employee shall discuss the grievance informally with his/her immediate supervisor as soon as possible but in no case later than thirty (30) days from the date of the occurrence of the act or the date the grievant might reasonably have been expected to have learned of the alleged violation being grieved.
20. If the grievance is not resolved within seven (7) days after contact with the immediate supervisor, the grievant will submit the grievance in writing to the immediate supervisor on a mutually agreeable grievance form. The grievance will set forth the name of the employee, the facts of the grievance, the terms and conditions of employment claimed to have been violated, misapplied or misinterpreted, and the remedy or solution being sought by the grievant. For grievances involving more than one employee, the Union will identify the names of all affected grievants as soon as reasonably possible, but no later than submission to Step 4.
21. The immediate supervisor shall respond in writing within ten (10) days following receipt of the written grievance.
22. Step 2: A grievant dissatisfied with the immediate supervisor's response at Step 1 may appeal to the intermediate supervisor, in writing, within ten (10) days of receipt of the Step 1 answer. The intermediate supervisor may convene a meeting or respond in writing within twenty (20) days of receipt of the grievance. If a meeting is held the intermediate supervisor shall respond in writing within twenty (20) days.
23. Step 3: A grievant dissatisfied with the intermediate supervisor's response at Step 2 may appeal to the Appointing Officer or designee, in writing, within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the Step 2 answer. The Appointing Officer or designee may convene a meeting within twenty (20) days with the grievant and/or the grievant's Union representative. The Appointing Officer or designee shall respond in writing within twenty (20) days of the hearing or receipt of the grievance, whichever is later.

24. Step 4: A grievant dissatisfied with the Appointing Officer's response at Step 3 may appeal to the Director, Employee Relations, in writing, within twenty (20) days of receipt of the Step 3 answer. The Director may convene a grievance meeting within twenty (20) days with the grievant and/or the grievant's Union. The Director shall respond to the grievance in writing within twenty (20) days of the meeting or, if none is held, within twenty (20) days of receipt of the appeal.
25. Arbitration: If the Union is dissatisfied with the Step 4 answer it may invoke arbitration by notifying the Director of Employee Relations in writing, within twenty (20) days of the 4th Step decision.

Selection of the Arbitrator

26. The parties shall establish a list of seven (7) arbitrators to serve as the permanent panel to hear grievances arising under the terms of this Agreement. In the event the parties cannot agree on the panel within thirty (30) days following the effective date of this Agreement, either party may obtain a panel through the appointment process of the American Arbitration Association. Provided however that an arbitrator may be removed from the panel by mutual consent at any time. Replacements, in the absence of mutual agreement, shall be made by American Arbitration Association appointment.
27. When a matter is appealed to arbitration the parties shall first attempt to mutually agree on an arbitrator. In the event no agreement is reached within seven (7) days the arbitrator shall be selected from the permanent panel by utilizing a strike off procedure.

Discipline/Discharge Grievances

28. Permanent employees or employees who have served the equivalent of the probationary period may grieve (appeal) suspensions, disciplinary demotions or discharges.

Steps of the Procedure: Disciplinary Grievances

29. Step 1. The grievant and/or the union shall submit in writing to the Appointing Officer or designee a grievance appealing the disciplinary action within fifteen (15) days of the mailing date of the written notice. The grievance shall set forth the basis of the appeal. The Appointing Officer or designee shall respond within twenty (20) days following receipt of the appeal.
30. Step 2. The union may appeal the Appointing Officer's decision to the Director of Employee Relations in writing within ten (10) days. The Director may convene a grievance meeting within twenty (20) days with the grievant and the grievant's union. The Director shall respond to the grievance in writing within twenty (20) days of the meeting or if none is held within twenty (20) of receipt of the appeal.

ARTICLE I. REPRESENTATION

Fees and Expenses of Arbitrator

34. The fees and expenses of the Arbitrator shall be shared equally by the parties. Transcripts shall not be required except that either party may request a transcript provided, however, that the party making such a request shall be solely responsible for the cost. Direct expenses of the arbitration shall be borne equally by the parties.

Hearing Dates and Date of Award

35. Hearings shall be scheduled within forty (40) days of selection of an arbitrator. Awards shall be due within forty (40) days following the receipt of closing arguments. As a condition of appointment to the permanent panel arbitrators shall be advised of this requirement and shall certify their willingness to abide by these time limits.
36. Any claim for monetary relief shall not extend more than thirty (30) days prior to the filing of a grievance, unless considerations of equity or bad faith justify a greater entitlement.
37. In the event a grievance is not filed or appealed in a timely manner it shall be dismissed. Failure of the City to timely reply to a grievance shall authorize appeal to the next grievance step.

F. OFFICIAL REPRESENTATIVES AND STEWARDS

Official Representatives

38. The Union may select up to the number of employees as specified in the Employee Relations Ordinance for purposes of meeting and conferring with the City on matters within the scope of representation. If a situation should arise where the Union believes that more than a total of five (5) employee members should be present at such meetings, and the City disagrees, the Union shall take the matter up with the Employee Relations Director and the parties shall attempt to reach agreement as to how many employees shall be authorized to participate in said meetings.
39. The organization's duly authorized representative shall inform in writing the department head or officer under whom each selected employee member is employed that such employee has been selected.

43. The Union recognizes that it is the responsibility of the steward to assist in the resolution of grievances at the lowest possible level.
44. Upon notification of a designated management person, stewards or designated officers of the Union subject to management approval which shall not be unreasonably withheld, shall be granted reasonable release time to investigate and process grievances and appeals. Stewards shall advise their supervisors of the area or work location where they will be investigating or processing grievances. The Union will attempt to insure that steward release time will be equitably distributed.
45. Stewards shall be responsible for the performance of their workload, consistent with release time approved pursuant to rules established herein.
46. In emergency situations, where immediate disciplinary action is taken because of an alleged violation of law or a City departmental rule (intoxication, theft, etc.) the steward shall not unreasonably be denied the right to leave his/her post or duty.
47. Stewards shall not interfere with the work of any employee. It shall not constitute interference with the work of an employee for a steward, in the course of investigating or processing a grievance, or a disciplinary action, to interview an employee during the employee's duty time.
48. Stewards shall orient new employees on matters concerning employee rights under the provisions of the Agreement.

APPENDIX A – DEPARTMENTAL MOU PROVISIONS FOR RECREATION AND PARK DEPARTMENT (ZOO)

SECTION 1. OBJECTIVE OF THE ZOO

The San Francisco Zoological Gardens' Mission Statement approved by the Recreation and Park Commission on 18 July 1991 represents the purpose of the Zoo. The achievement of this mission and goals is recognized to be a mutual obligation of the parties to this MOU within their respective roles and responsibilities.

It is further recognized by the parties to the MOU within their respective roles that the public requires high standards of employee performance and the continual development and implementation of modern and progressive work practices.

SECTION 2. PAY WARRANTS

Management agrees that time rolls will be submitted on a timely basis to the Payroll-Personnel Services Division of the Controller's Office.

SECTION 3. LIST OF UNIT EMPLOYEES

Upon written request to the Personnel Director of the Recreation and Park Department, and no more often than quarterly, the department shall furnish the Union with the names and dates of hire of all 3320 Animal Keepers.

SECTION 4. CHAIN OF COMMAND

The Employer has the authority to delineate the chain of command. The Employer's authority to delineate the chain of command is not grievable.

The chain of command will be provided to all 3320 Animal Keepers. Any changes in the chain of command will be provided in writing with a copy to the Union.

SECTION 5. SAFETY

The Zoo will implement and maintain an Injury and Illness Prevention Program as required under SB 198. Under this program, a safety committee shall exist on which at least one member shall be an animal keeper. Training shall be provided to each animal keeper and all animal keepers shall be responsible for knowing and complying with the safety procedures of the Zoo.

SECTION 6. TRAINING

- 6.1 The Employer shall insure training for animal keepers in the performance of their assigned duties. No animal keeper shall be assigned to a work area without appropriate training.
- 6.2 All animal keepers are expected to keep current their training in all areas of their section.
- 6.3 Factors used by management in selecting keepers for training will include, but are not limited to the following:

- a. Employer's needs;
 - b. Keeper's need for training;
 - c. Keeper's potential; and
 - d. Keeper's interest.
- 6.4 The Employer has the right to make the final decision on the training needs of the Zoo, and to select the animal keepers who receive training, and to release keepers on official time for training.
- 6.5 Animal keepers may be permitted, when practicable, to attend work-related seminars, meetings, events, training sessions, and classes.
- 6.6 The Employer and the Union recognize that all animal keepers are responsible for applying reasonable effort, time, and initiative in increasing their potential value to the Zoo through self-development and training. Animal keepers are encouraged to take advantage of training and educational opportunities which will add to the skills and qualifications needed to increase the overall professionalism of the Zoo.

SECTION 7. SENIORITY

Departmental Seniority is determined by the total length of service as an Animal Keeper at the Zoo provided there is continuous service at the Zoo. Leaves of absence shall not constitute a break in service. Temporary or CETA (Comprehensive Training and Employment Act) appointments in class 3320 shall not be used to determine seniority. Employees who are appointed to another position at the Zoo and return to the position of animal keeper shall regain their original seniority.

In any bidding process within the Zoo where seniority is a factor and City and County of San Francisco employees are in competition with Zoo Society employees, Departmental seniority as defined above plus length of service as a temporary Animal Keeper (including CETA time) will be included in the definition of seniority.

SECTION 8. SECTIONS

The Employer, in the best interest of Zoo operations, reserves the right to organize and reorganize the work of the Zoo, to assign personnel qualified to effectively carry out such assignments, to establish and modify days off and to make alternate arrangements where necessary. Animal Keepers shall be responsible for the duties of their primary work assignment (if applicable) and section. The Employer shall develop standards and organize the work within sections.

- 8.1 Whenever operationally feasible, Animal Keeper assignments will be organized into five-day primary work areas and two-day relief assignments. Notwithstanding this normal assignment pattern, the Zoo reserves the right to assign Animal Keepers as needed for training purposes, to meet special project needs, to provide adequate staff coverage, or in unforeseen circumstances. Such reassignments shall not be subject to the grievance procedure unless they extend beyond thirty (30) calendar days.

- 8.1.1. Days Off. Available days off within each section will be set by the Employer and determined by the staffing level needed to perform the required work. Application for a change of days off will be considered on the basis of availability. Disputes over award of days off will be resolved by award to the Animal Keeper with the greatest length of service within the section. The Employer agrees not to unduly restrict availability of weekend days off.
- 8.1.2. Vacation. An annual sign-up for vacation will be held for each section. The maximum number of keepers allowed vacation at the same time will be determined by the needs of the section. The order of the vacation sign-up will be determined by the length of service as an Animal Keeper at the Zoo. All additional paid leave will be awarded on a first come first served basis based on the needs of the section. Scheduled vacations may only be canceled with management approval.
- 8.1.3 Work Assignments. Within each section those Animal Keepers assigned to previously established primary work areas as defined in Attachment B shall continue in such assignments. All other assignments within the section shall be based on abilities and qualifications with seniority as the tie-breaker.
- 8.2 Each section may elect by a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the Animal Keepers assigned to the section to establish either a 4-10 schedule or another alternative schedule with the concurrence of the supervisor provided that such alternative schedule will allow for adequate staff coverage, adequate supervision, is within the authorized budget, and meets the Zoo's public service needs.
- 8.3 New or Modified Sections. When a new section is created or sections are combined, assignments will normally be organized into five-day primary work areas and two-day relief assignments in accordance with the provisions of Section 8.1 above. Assignments to the new or modified section will be posted as sectional vacancies for bidding first to all Animal Keepers who lost some or all of their existing assignment to the new or modified section. The new assignment(s) will be filled on the basis of abilities and qualifications with seniority prevailing where such abilities and qualifications are approximately equal unless the affected Animal Keepers do not possess the requisite abilities and qualifications in which event the Employer will post the assignment for bidding among all current Animal Keepers and if there are no qualified bidders, the Employer may recruit from other sources.

Vacancies. When a vacancy in an established primary work area as defined in Attachment B is to be filled, such vacancy will be posted within the section having such a vacancy for internal bidding for one calendar week and the assignment shall be made on the basis of abilities and qualifications with seniority prevailing where such abilities and qualifications are approximately equal. The vacancy within the section which results from following this procedure will then be posted Zoo-wide. Following the filling of the vacancy described in such Zoo-wide posting, the Employer may fill any vacancy created by this process by either hiring or further posting for bids from among current employees.

The parties recognize that the terms of section 8.3 “New or Modified Sections”/”Vacancies” governs only the assignment and reassignment, to new or modified sections, of those current animal keepers listed on Exhibit G-1 to the agreement between the City and the San Francisco Zoo Society (“SFZS”). The filling of vacancies is governed by the agreement between the City and SFZS which states: “positions of current Civil Service Employees assigned to the Zoo that become vacant for any reason, including but not limited to resignation, termination, reassignment or retirement, shall not be filled by City employees subject to Civil Service provisions.” This provision shall not be subject to grievance.

Daily Work Assignments. Whenever possible, daily work assignments will be pre-scheduled. Supervisors will consider employee preferences and seniority in making daily work assignments; however, the Employer reserves the right to make daily work assignments to effectively carry out Zoo operations.

SECTION 9. OVERTIME

Overtime and qualifications of an employee to perform an overtime assignment shall be determined by the Employer. When the use of overtime is necessary for the performance of Animal Keeper duties the assignment shall be determined as follows:

Pre-scheduled overtime, defined as that overtime which is approved twenty-four (24) hours or more in advance, will first be offered to animal keeping staff within the section on a rotation based on length of service within the section. After this, if it is deemed appropriate then the overtime will be offered to all animal keeping staff based on length of service at the Zoo.

9.2 All other overtime will be assigned at the discretion of the Employer.

SECTION 10. NON-CITY EMPLOYEES

Inherent within the prudent management of a non-profit institution is the effective use of concerned volunteers. The Employer reserves the right to use volunteers to facilitate or enhance achievement of stated Zoo goals. The Employer agrees that volunteers shall not be used to displace or reduce the hours of regularly scheduled qualified employees but may do work supplemental thereto after written notification to the Union.

SECTION 11. UNIFORMS

It is the intent of this provision that employees present a professional appearance and be identifiable to the public as Zoo employees. The Employer shall establish policies regarding the suitability and appearance of uniforms. During the term of this Memorandum of Understanding the Employer will convene a Uniform Policy Labor Management Committee to review the existing uniform policies and provide employee input regarding any policy changes under consideration. The Employer will provide notice to shop stewards of the opening of uniform service contracts and, if requested, review with the Union, the current uniform policies.

Employee may request uniforms of substitute materials if they are allergic to the issued items. Documentation of such condition, such as a physician's statement, may be required by the Employer.

SECTION 12. LABOR MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE (LMC)

1. A Labor Management Committee (LMC) will be created between the parties to consist of a reasonable number of Animal Keepers designated by Local 856 and a similar number of management representatives. This LMC will meet monthly at a time and place to be mutually determined. Training in the effective use of labor management committees will be jointly requested by the parties from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service.
2. Within ninety (90) days of the adoption of the Memorandum of Understanding between the parties, the LMC will convene to develop a comprehensive policy on the appropriate use of volunteers for recommended implementation which will clarify the rights and responsibilities of Animal Keepers in their work relationship with assigned volunteers and will include guidelines for each section to consider in determining the appropriate use of volunteers for that section.
3. The LMC will seek to resolve any disputes about job standards which may arise between Animal Keepers and supervisors. The LMC may consider any other issue by mutual agreement.

APPENDIX B – DEPARTMENTAL MOU PROVISIONS FOR JUVENILE PROBATION DEPARTMENT

SENIOR COUNSELOR POSITIONS

The Department supports the Union's position that the 8322 Senior Counselor, Juvenile Hall classification and the 8323 Senior Counselor, Log Cabin Ranch classification should be merged into one class, and agrees to submit a request to the Department of Human Resources (DHR) for DHR's consideration.

PARKING & TRANSPORTATION DURING JUVENILE HALL CONSTRUCTION

For the duration of the construction at Juvenile Hall, the Department will maintain discussions with appropriate parties of interest in order to attempt to provide sufficient and secure parking facilities and to investigate alternative modes of transportation for employees at the Juvenile Probation Department. Included in such discussions may be the development of a shuttle service, patrol and escort service, and/or the building of a parking structure.

CONSTRUCTION WORKLOAD LABOR-MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE – JUVENILE HALL

The City shall establish a Joint Labor-Management Committee to discuss workload assignments during demolition of the existing Juvenile Hall facility and construction of a new facility. The Committee shall be comprised of an equal number of representatives appointed by the Union and appointed by the Department. The meetings will be open to Union business agents as observers. Not more than two (2) employees from classification 8322, and not more than one (1) employee from classification 8324 shall be granted release time subject to staffing needs. The Committee shall commence no later than October 1, 2001 and will meet on a monthly basis for four (4) months. At the conclusion of this process, the Committee will present its findings and recommendations regarding workload assignments during demolition and construction to the Chief Probation Officer.

After the initial four month period, for the remainder of construction, this committee shall meet from time to time at the call of either party but no more frequently than once every six (6) weeks for the purpose of further discussion on workload assignments and other issues related to the Juvenile Hall Replacement Project. Either party may request a meeting by submitting a proposed agenda and a proposed time and place of the meeting to the other party. Both parties will make a good faith effort to mutually agree upon a meeting date within two (2) calendar weeks of submission of the agenda. Decisions shall be made by mutual agreement, subject to approval of the Chief Probation Officer.

STEPS OF THE GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE: DISCIPLINARY GRIEVANCES

By mutual written agreement between the Union and the Appointing Officer, the Union may proceed with an appeal directly to the Director of Employee Relations, as set forth in Step 2 of this MOU's Disciplinary Grievance Procedure

ASSIGNMENT OF OVERTIME AT JUVENILE HALL

When an overtime assignment must be made, such assignments will be made on a rotational basis by seniority, first to the most senior qualified employees in classification 8324 Supervising Counselor, and then to the most senior qualified employees in classification 8322 Senior Counselor. This provision does not govern in emergency situations.

All contact attempts made for offering overtime shall be documented. Upon request, this information will be made available to the Union.
