

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The Chicano-Latino Law Review would like to extend special thanks to Professor Bryan Fair who has devoted a substantial amount of time facilitating the study of law at the University of California at Los Angeles. As our faculty advisor, Professor Fair demonstrated his commitment personally guiding individual student scholarship and the long term development of the Review. His assistance during his tenure as our faculty advisor has been invaluable.

A special welcome is extended to the Honorable Cruz Reynoso, recently appointed to and tenured at the University of California at Los Angeles School of Law. His vast legal knowledge and experiences will prove invaluable in the future. Professor Reynoso will succeed Professor Fair as our faculty advisor.

Recognition and thanks is also extended to visiting Professor John Martinez¹ for his insightful comments and encouragement.

1. Professor of Law, University of Utah College of Law. B.A., Occidental College; J.D., Columbia.
