Ufahamu has been an important forum for the publication of materials addressing Africa and the African Diaspora for more than 30 years. Named after the Swahili word for comprehension, understanding or being, Ufahamu is committed to views about social issues, addressing both the general reader and the scholar. Since its establishment in 1970, Ufahamu continues to challenge and correct misconceptions about Africa, thereby creating relevant criteria for African Studies. It publishes material supportive of the African revolution and socially significant works of African history, politics, economics, sociology, anthropology, law, planning and development, literature and other topics about the continent and the African Diaspora.

We encourage our readers to submit poetry, fiction, scholarly articles, commentaries, political or economic analyses, review articles and artwork to the Editors-in-Chief. You may submit your work to Ufahamu at www.ufahamu.org or <http://cdldemo.bepress.com/international/asc/ufahamu/>. New users will need to create an account. Ufahamu is no longer accepting submissions via post or mail.

Our online submission process now requires that manuscripts be submitted in separate stages in order to ensure the anonymity of the review process and to enable appropriate formatting. The main text must be submitted as a stand-alone file (in Microsoft Word) without a title page, abstract, page numbers, or other headers or footers. The title, abstract, and author information should be input according to the directions on the site. Abstracts (400 words or less) should be submitted in plain text and should not include information identifying the author(s) or their institutional affiliations. All submissions except for book reviews must include an abstract before they will be considered for review.

Since we publish two issues per year, we continuously accept submissions. Though we occasionally publish special, thematic issues, most issues treat a broad range of topics. So, please, feel free to submit all of your African-related work.

If you have any further questions, you may contact the editors at ufahamu@gmail.com or access our website at: <http://www.international.ucla.edu/africa/ufahamu/>.

CALL FOR PAPERS
(De)Constructing Urbanities: Opportunities and Challenges in African Cities

Ufahamu: A Journal of African Studies

To follow the 2008 UCLA African Activist Association Conference, entitled “(De)Constructing Urbanities: Opportunities and Challenges in African Cities”, Ufahamu is publishing a special issue that will include work presented at the conference. In line with the theme of the conference, Ufahamu is actively seeking submissions that encourage discourse on the challenges and opportunities facing Africans in the post-colonial context of urbanization and examines new configurations of African cities. The special issue is also open to submissions beyond the conference agenda. Submissions should not be limited to scholarly articles, but can also include political-economic analysis, commentaries, film and book reviews, short fiction, and poetry. Submissions are due no later than Friday, August 1, 2008. Submissions should be no more than 30 pages, clearly typed, double-spaced, and, where appropriate, with footnotes on separate page(s). Electronic submissions only please, submitted to www.ufahamu.org or <http://cdldemo.bepress.com/international/asc/ufahamu/>. New users will need to create an account. Ufahamu is no longer accepting submissions via post or mail.

CONTRIBUTIONS

Ufahamu accepts contributions from anyone interested in Africa and related subject areas. Contributions may include scholarly articles, commentaries, review articles, film and book reviews, poetry, prose fiction and artwork. Manuscripts must be no more than 30 pages, clearly typed, double-spaced, formatted following the most recent Chicago Manual of Style "Author-Date Text Citations Basic Form." Please include a brief abstract and a brief biographical note, including position, academic or organizational affiliation and recent significant publications, etc. We request that, when possible, articles be submitted as an e-mail attachment to the Editors-in-Chief of Ufahamu at ufahamu@gmail.com

The Editorial Board reserves the right to make minor changes to any manuscript to meet the objectives of the journal. All correspondence—manuscripts, subscriptions, books for review, inquiries, etc.—should be addressed to the Editors-in-Chief either via e-mail (ufahamu@gmail.com) or at our mailing address. We regret that once submitted, materials cannot be returned.

Articles appearing in this journal are abstracted and indexed in the International Bibliography of the Social Sciences.
